Funding ASL Interpreters

We have created a GoFundMe to fund ASL (American Sign Language) Interpreters for this year's Boskone. (Any extra money will be put aside for future years.) Details (including NESFA's IRS letter) are in the GoFundMe. Note: this was organized by Boskone 57 Chair Rick Kovalcik.

(This has also been posted on Facebook to the Boskone and NESFA Groups.)

Get Tuckerized by Walter Jon Williams

Walter Jon Williams will name a character after you in an upcoming book if you are the winning bidder in Saturday's Fan Funds Auction! He generously donated a Tuckerization* to the auction shortly after he arrived at Boskone. Thanks, Walter Jon!

The auction proceeds will help support TAFF, DUFF, CUFF, GUFF, and the Otherwise Award.

Walter Jon advises that the character "may not be of the greatest moral fiber, and may come to a sticky end."

The auction is at 6pm Saturday in Marina 1. You can bid in person there. You can also bid on the Tuckerization in advance of the auction using the bid sheet on the Fan Funds Auction table just outside the Galleria. The table also has a display with information about the fan funds, what all those acronyms stand for, and some of the other treasures and curiosities up for auction. Bid early, bid often!

* For further info on the origins and practice of Tuckerized characters, see <http://fancylopedia.org/Tuckerism> and <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tuckerization>

Lost: black OtterBox cellphone cover.
Return to Office in Galleria. REWARD.
